1. Demonstrate professional and ethical behavior (EP 2.1.1) Social workers understand the value base of the profession and its ethical standards, as well as relevant laws and regulations that may impact practice at the micro, mezzo, and macro levels. Social workers understand frameworks of ethical decision-making and how to apply principles of critical thinking to those frameworks in practice, research, and policy arenas. Social workers recognize personal values and the distinction between personal and professional values. They also understand how their personal experiences and affective reactions influence their professional judgment and behavior. Social workers understand the profession's history, its mission, and the roles and responsibilities of the profession. Social Workers also understand the role of other professions when engaged in inter-professional teams. Social workers recognize the importance of life-long learning and are committed to continually updating their skills to ensure they are relevant and effective. Social workers also understand emerging forms of technology and the ethical use of technology in social work practice. Social workers: Advanced Practice Behaviors 1. Demonstrate commitment to social work as a profession and to professional growth in clinical behavior and community practice (e.g. managing personal biases); 2. Remain knowledgeable about changes in applicable laws and apply ethical decision-making skills to issues specific to clinical behavioral health and community practice. Activities/Tasks: 1. 2.	Midterm 0 1 2 3 4 5 0 1 2 3 4 5	Final 0 1 2 3 4 5 0 1 2 3 4 5

2. Engage diversity and difference in practice (EP 2.1.2) Social workers understand how diversity and difference characterize and shape the human experience and are critical to the formation of identity. The dimensions of diversity are understood as the intersectionality of multiple factors including but not limited to age, class, color, culture, disability and ability, ethnicity, gender, gender identity and expression, immigration status, marital status, political ideology, race, religion/spirituality, sex, sexual orientation, and tribal sovereign status. Social workers understand that, as a consequence of difference, a person’s life experiences may include oppression, poverty, marginalization, and alienation as well as privilege, power, and acclaim. Social workers also understand the forms and mechanisms of oppression and discrimination and recognize the extent to which a culture’s structures and values, including social, economic, political, and cultural exclusions, may oppress, marginalize, alienate, or create privilege and power. Social workers: Advanced Practice Behaviors <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 3.
